CONFESSION OF CRIME

MICHIGAN WOMAN ADMITS AD-MINISTERING STRYCHNINE TO HER RELATIVES.

POISONED FAMILY OF THREE

EIGHT OTHER PERSONS MAY HAVE MET THE SAME FATE
AT HER HANDS.

Kaskaskia, Mich., June 11.—Prosecutor Smith announced at noon that Mrs. Mary McKnight has confessed to the poisoning of her brother, John Murphy, and his wife and baby.

The prosecutor said Mrs. McKnight confessed voluntarily to him that she administered strychnine to Baby Murphy, Gertrude Murphy and John Murphy.

Eight other persons, besides the three to whose murder Mrs. Mc-Knight confessed, investigation shows,
have died in the past fifteen years under circumstances that in view of the woman's confession, are now thought to be suspicious. All of the eight were either relatives or intimate friends who died while living with Mrs. McKnight, or while she was at their house. All are said to have shown symptoms that are now believed to indicate strychnine poisoning. They were:

Ernest McKnight, the woman's lastest husband; James Ambrose, her first husband, who died at Alpena in 1887; Mrs. McKnight, the wife of James E. McKnight, who was a partner of Ambrose; Baby Teeple, Mrs.
McKnight's niece; Eliza Chalker, another niece, who died at Grayling in May, 1892; Sarah Murphy, Mrs. Mc-Knight's sister, who died at Grayling in February, 1893; Mrs. Curry, who died in Saginaw in 1893 while Mrs. McKnight was at her mother's house; and Dorothy Jensen, a child who died in Grayling while under
Mrs. McKnight's care during the absence of her mother.

Mrs. McKnight raised the figures on a mortgage she held on the Murphy
home, and this led to her arrest.

Mrs. McKnight seemed perfectly sane, although under great mental strain. No motive for the crimes can be found.

CLOSING ARGUMENTS BEGUN.

Case of Minnesota Against the Northern Securities Company.

St. Paul, June 11.—Attorney M. D.
Munn, before Judge Lochren, in the federal court, commenced the closing argument in the case of the state
against the Northern Securities company. Mr. Munn talked all day.

In addition to the oral argument
made by Mr. Munn, he filed a brief
which goes into the history of the case
in detail, and the law points are reviewed at considerable length. In addressing the court in the interests of the state, Mr. Munn reviewed the history of the formation of the Northern Securities company at some length,
declaring it to be an illegal combination.

The speaker, while practically admitting the contention of the defendants that the formation of the Securities company was of benefit to the country traversed by the roads, said

such benefits were no excuse for disregarding the law, which he held had been done by the formation of the holding company.

WISCONSIN VETERANS.

J. P. Rundel of Milwaukee Elected Department Commander.

Chippewa Falls, Wis., June 11.—J.
P. Rundel of Milwaukee was elected department commander of the G. A.
R. of Wisconsin at the state encampment. The other officers are: Senior vice department commander, Rev. E.
E. Clough, Chippewa Falls; junior vice commander, J. M. Whitley, De-pere; medical director, Dr. Hugo
Phillips, Waukesha; chaplain, Stanley E. Bester, Madison was selected for the next encampment.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. elected
Miss Bessie M. Call of Milwaukee
president, and Miss Celestia Edwards
of Oconomowoc was elected president of the Woman's Relief Corps.

LEAVE FOR WASHINGTON.

President Roosevelt and Party Start
Home From Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., June 11.—The president, Miss Roosevelt, Commander
Cowles, U. S. N., and Secretary Loeb, left for Washington in a special train
over the Pennsylvania road. The evening was spent at the home of Senator Hanna. The party came here to attend the wedding of Miss Ruth Hanna and Joseph Medill McCormick.
There was a good sized crowd at the station to wave the president farewell and he responded to the greetings by lifting his hat and bowing.

POPULATION MASSACRED.

Bashi Bazouks Attack a Village and Kill the Inhabitants.

Sofia, Bulgaria, June 11.—It is reported that the village of Enidje, in the district of Adrianople, consisting of 500 houses, was attacked on June 2 by Bashi Bazouks and the entire population, with the exception of 200 men, was massacred. The village was pillaged and the loot carried off to neighboring Turkish villages.

SKULL FRACTURED.

Minnesota Man Fatally Injured at Batavia, N. Y.

Batavia, N. Y., June 11.—John W.
Cropp of Compton, Minn., is in the Batavia hospital, fatally injured. He either jumped or fell from a train on the West Shore railroad in front of a passing train. His skull was fractured. Accompanied by his brother,
Mr. Cropp was on his way to Germany
on a visit.

STRIKES A LANDSLIDE.

Accident to Great Northern Train Results in Injury to Three Men.

Great Falls, Mont., June 11.—Great Northern express from Havre for Butte plowed into a landslide near Fort Benton, early in the day and the mail and baggage cars were derailed.
None of the passengers were injured.
Engineer McClintock, Conductor Bingham and a fireman, jumped and were hurt. A washout on the Great Northern beyond Kalispell has cut off all traffic in that section and trains are running over the Northern Pacific via Helena.

Armstrong Knocks Out Martin.

Boston, June 11.—Bob Armstrong
of New York put out "Denver Ed"
Martin, with a left hand stomach
punch in the third round of a twelve-
round bout before the Tammany club.
The event was announced to be for the colored heavyweight championship
of the world.

CITY UNDER WATER

EMBANKMENT SWEEP AWAY AND

EAST ST. LOUIS INUNDATED
BY THE FLOOD.

ELEVEN PERSONS DROWNED

PARTY OF NEGRO LOOTERS SAID
TO HAVE BEEN SHOT DOWN
BY THE GUARDS.

St. Louis, June 11.—Almost two thirds of East St. Louis, Ill., is under from two to fifteen feet of water. Between twilight Tuesday night and dawn Wednesday, eleven lives were sacrificed to the angry waters, and damage which no man attempts to estimate was done to property. Not a wheel of industry is turning in East St. Louis, but the flood water whirl and suck at the foundations of many buildings, which have been deserted.

The vast railroad yards are apparently half-submerged cars and locomotives.

Huge grain elevators stand surrounded by running water. To the south beyond the railway yards, are thousands of cottages, owned by laborers and containing their all, submerged
to the eaves.

In Northern East St. Louis the condition is not so bad.

The business portion of the city and the district containing the better residences is still intact, but for how long is not known. Broadway, running from Eads bridge east to the city limits, a wide street built of sand and walled with stone, fifteen feet high divides the city in halves. Over ten feet of water is pressing against Broadway from the South and in many places is seeping through in streams
as thick as a man's body.

Traffic Rendered Dangerous.

Traffic over certain portions of the thoroughfare has been prohibited, and even pedestrians are not allowed to traverse those threatened portions.
If Broadway breaks, the water will rush over much of the city until Missouri avenue, running parallel one block north, is encountered.

Along the river front to the West
a levee of sand bags from two to six feet high and two miles long keeps
the river out.

Tuesday night the river suddenly began to rise. Tired men worked with frenzied energy to strengthen the sand bag levees. The city was made safe along the river front, but a new danger menaced. Word was received that the Illinois Central embankment skirting the river along the Southern boundary of the city, was threatening to give way. Caissons were sent on horseback and afoot to shout warnings
to the inhabitants of the southern half of the city, and hundreds of laborers
and citizens hastened to the embankment. Locomotives rushed carloads of sandbags to the place and work was hurriedly begun. Accompanied by this time to warnings of impending danger
the inhabitants did not leave their homes. Higher and higher crept the water until a thin stream began to pour over the embankment, and suddenly it broke.

Tore Away the Embankment.

The break occurred at 11:40 o'clock.
D. H. Sherwood, a laborer, was swept away and drowned. The water cut a section of the embankment out and a stream twenty-five feet wide rushed through. Another section of the embankment went out a few minutes
later and then that portion standing between the two streams went down and the river poured through. It is believed that many men, especially negroes, were drowned.

The alarm spread like wildfire and whistles were blown, bells tolled, shots fired, and cries of warning were sounded, but even with all this pandemonium many of the inhabitants failed
to leave their homes.

Within an hour the houses stood in water that reached to the roofs of the one-story cottages. Many fled to large brick buildings. Rescue boats found many people in second stories
and on house-tops, but there is grave
fear that when all the living have been transferred to land, the boats
will bear bodies of dead from the flooded cottages and the desolated
quarters.

In the turmoil it has been impossible
to verify reported deaths, but from apparently reliable sources it is claimed that the following eleven persons were drowned:

Eleven Persons Drowned.

John Koollish and three children,
drowned on North Side; an unidentified baby, E. H. Sherwood, Lawrence Day, two unidentified women, and two unidentified men.

It is currently reported that seven
negroes caught looting houses at night were shot to death. They were all on a raft and were surprised by guards
who shot them down and threw their bodies into the water. While this was not confirmed, it is known that there was heavy firing on the North Side, where these negroes are said to have been killed.

The deaths of John Koollish, a Polish carpenter, and his three children,
two boys, aged five and seven years
respectively, and a girl of twelve,
were caused by trying to save three kegs of beer.

When boats were rowed alongside homes whose occupants were mar-
ooned in second stories and on roofs,

many at first refused to leave. They feared river thieves and would stand guard. Women were most unwilling to be rescued, although some of them
were wringing their hands and weeping in terror. Promises of militia patrol won the recalcitrant persons to salvation.

The St. Louis government gauge at 7 o'clock Wednesday night registered 37.95 feet, a rise of 15 of a foot during the past twenty-four hours. No attempt is made to explain this rise
other than the wind is forcing water
from lowlands into the channels of the Mississippi and Missouri rivers
which swells the torrent passing St.
Louis.

Denverside, a suburb of East St.
Louis, was completely inundated, and Alta Sitka, farther to the East, was half flooded last night. If the river rises even to a small additional extent the water must swamp Alta Sitka.
From the ordinary course of the Mississippi to the Illinois bluffs is a distance of five to eight miles and the flood laps at the foot of the bluffs.

To Relieve Flood Situation.

Topeka, Kan., June 11.—Governor Bailey at night said he would call an extra session of the Kansas legislature to relieve the flood situation.

CROP STATISTICS.

Spring Wheat Area Decreases in Minnesota and South Dakota.

Washington, June 11.—Preliminary returns to the statistician of the department of agriculture on the acreage of spring wheat sown indicate an area of about 17,257,000 acres, a decrease of 264,000 acres, or 2.1 per cent
from the revised estimate of the acreage sown last year. An increase of 10 per cent in North Dakota is accompanied by a decrease in Minnesota and South Dakota, conservatively estimated at 6 per cent in the former state and 5 per cent in the latter.

The average condition of spring
wheat on June 1 was 95.9, as compared with 95.4 at the corresponding date last year, 92 on June 1, 1901, and a ten year average of 92.9.

The average condition of winter wheat on June 1 was 82.2, as compared with 92.6 on May 1, 1903.

The total area reported in oats is about 27,732,000 acres, a reduction of 920,000 acres from the area sown last year.

The average condition of oats on June 1 was 85.5, against 90.6 on June 1, 1902.

The acreage as reported under barley exceeds that harvested last year
by 330,000 acres.

There has been an improvement in the condition of spring pastures during the past month in Iowa, Missouri,
Michigan, Kansas and Wisconsin.

Lawson Attaches Property.

Boston, June 11.—The property of the Bay State Gas company of Delaware has been attached by Thomas W. Lawson, in an action of contract for $1,850,000.

RUSSIA GIVES NOTICE

WILL NOT RECEIVE REPRESENTATIONS REGARDING KISHINEFF INCIDENT.

Washington, June 11.—Numerous offers have reached the Russian government from American sources to aid the families of sufferers in the recent Kishineff incident. All such offers have been declined for the reason that Russia is entirely capable of extending relief and under the circumstances cannot accept outside aid.

The Russian position in the matter
is stated to be as follows:

"Russia has not been unappreciative
of the generous offers which have come to her from America since the affair at Kishineff, nor the humane motive which may have prompted these offers. In view of the fact that his majesty, the emperor, has the means at hand to relieve suffering
wherever it appears in his empire,
outside aid is unnecessary and all offers of such must be declined.

"Nor will it be possible for Russia
to receive any representations regarding the Kishineff incident from a foreign power. The Russian government takes the same position as that long held by the American government, namely, that it refrains from interference in the internal affairs of another power and must insist on similar treatment for itself. Should any foreign power take steps to restrict immigration of Russian Jews on the ground that they are undesirable
Russia will not protest."

REACH ST. FRANCIS.

Militia Escorting Chauncey Dewey
and His Cowboys Arrive Safely.

Lincoln, Neb., June 11.—The State
Journal last night received the following dispatch from A. E. Harvey, a Lincoln attorney who has gone to St.
Francis, Kan., to defend Chauncey Dewey and the cowboys accused of murder. It is dated St. Francis and says:

"Have arrived here. There is no
disturbance and no danger of a collection. The militia arrived this evening with the prisoners. The county attorney says he wants a postponement
of the preliminary hearing until next week."

This is thought to dispose of wild rumors of bloody clashes between militia and settlers.

Jessie Morrison in Prison.

Lansing, Kan., June 11.—Jessie Morrison arrived at the state penitentiary
Wednesday and began to serve a twenty-five-year sentence for killing Mrs. Olin Castle. Miss Morrison was weak and nervous, but showed no signs of breaking down.

PRESIDENT CORNWALL MISSING.

His Cash Short Almost Three Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Birmingham, Ala., June 11.—With President T. J. Cornwall in parts unknown and short nearly $250,000, the Bosomer savings bank, one of the strongest institutions in the district,
will close its doors and ask for a receiver.

President Cornwall left three notes
explaining the shortage.

In one, addressed to the public, he says that he lost the money trying to make back $42,000 he had lost in a legitimate business transaction. He further exonerates all the officers of the bank and takes the whole blame
on himself.

In a letter to his wife, he stated that he would not commit suicide, but would let her know if he died. In a third letter, addressed to Cashier
Cockrell, he states that he had nothing left to do but "wander on the face of the earth or become a convict in the state mines."

The shortage will not affect the Birmingham banks, as they all have their paper out.

It is understood that a great part of the money was in deposits of the merchants and miners, together with employees of the rolling mills, furnaces

and industrial plants of Bessemer.
The city of Bessemer will lose $17-000.

The bank will probably not be able to meet a payment of more than a small percentage on its deposits. The bank was organized in 1901 with a capital of $100,000, and had deposits
of about $250,000.

BOYS BECOME ALARMED.

Lose Control of Their Boat and Three Jump Out and Drown.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 10.—Four persons were drowned in the Allegheny river a short distance below New Kensington in the evening. The dead are: Albert Lusk, thirty years old; Augustus Frank, nine years old; Joseph Krank, seven years old; George Adams, nine years old.

The three boys who were drowned
got into a boat and started to float down the river. With them were four other youths about their own age.
After floating half a mile down the river the current became swifter and the boys were unable to control the boat. The three boys who were drowned became frightened and jumped into the water and sank from sight in a moment. The four boys in the boat called for help and a camping party on an island hastened to the rescue. Lusk fell overboard.

CONFESSION OF CRIME

MICHIGAN WOMAN ADMITS ADMINISTERING STRYCHNINE TO HER RELATIVES.

EIGHT OTHER PERSONS MAY HAVE MET THE SAME FATE AT HER HANDS.

Kaskaskia, Mich., June 11.—Prosecutor Smith announced at noon that Mrs. Mary McKnight has confessed to the poisoning of her brother, John Murphy, and his wife and baby.

The prosecutor said Mrs. McKnight confessed voluntarily to him that she administered strychnine to Baby Murphy, Gertrude Murphy and John Murphy.

Eight other persons, besides the three to whose murder Mrs. McKnight confessed, investigation shows, have died in the past fifteen years under circumstances that in view of the woman's confession, are now thought to be suspicious. All of the eight were either relatives or intimate friends who died while living with Mrs. McKnight, or while she was at their house. All are said to have shown symptoms that are now believed to indicate strychnine poisoning. They were:

Ernest McKnight, the woman's latest husband; James Ambrose, her first husband, who died at Alpena in 1887; Mrs. McKnight, the wife of James E. McKnight, who was a partner of Ambrose; Baby Teeple, Mrs. McKnight's niece; Eliza Chalker, another niece, who died at Grayling in May, 1892; Sarah Murphy, Mrs. McKnight's sister, who died at Grayling in February, 1893; Mrs. Curry, who died in Saginaw in 1893 while Mrs. McKnight was at her mother's house; and Dorothy Jensen, a child who died in Grayling while under Mrs. McKnight's care during the absence of her mother.

Mrs. McKnight raised the figures on a mortgage she held on the Murphy home, and this led to her arrest.

Mrs. McKnight seemed perfectly sane, although under great mental strain. No motive for the crimes can be found.

Case of Minnesota Against the Northern Securities Company.

St. Paul, June 11.—Attorney M. D. Munn, before Judge Lochren, in the federal court, commenced the closing argument in the case of the state against the Northern Securities company. Mr. Munn talked all day.

In addition to the oral argument made by Mr. Munn, he filed a brief which goes into the history of the case in detail, and the law points are reviewed at considerable length. In addressing the court in the interests of the state, Mr. Munn reviewed the history of the formation of the Northern Securities company at some length, declaring it to be an illegal combination.

The speaker, while practically admitting the contention of the defendants that the formation of the Securities company was of benefit to the country traversed by the roads, said such benefits were no excuse for disregarding the law, which he held had been done by the formation of the holding company.

CITY UNDER WATER

EMBANKMENT SWEEP AWAY AND EAST ST. LOUIS INUNDED BY THE FLOOD.

ELEVEN PERSONS DROWNED

PARTY OF NEGRO LOOTERS SAID TO HAVE BEEN SHOT DOWN BY THE GUARDS.

St. Louis, June 11.—Almost two thirds of East St. Louis, Ill., is under from two to fifteen feet of water. Between twilight Tuesday night and dawn Wednesday, eleven lives were sacrificed to the angry waters, and damage which no man attempts to estimate was done to property. Not a wheel of industry is turning in East St. Louis, but the flood waters whirl and suck at the foundations of many buildings, which have been deserted.

The vast railroad yards are apparent by half-submerged cars and locomotives.

Huge grain elevators stand surrounded by running water. To the south beyond the railway yards, are thousands of cottages, owned by laborers and containing their all, submerged to the eaves.

In Northern East St. Louis the condition is not so bad.

The business portion of the city and the district containing the better residences is still intact, but for how long is not known. Broadway, running from Eads bridge east to the city limits, a wide street built of sand and walled with stone, fifteen feet high divides the city in halves. Over ten feet of water is pressing against Broadway from the South and in many places is seeping through in streams as thick as a man's body.

Traffic over certain portions of the thoroughfare has been prohibited, and even pedestrians are not allowed to traverse those threatened portions. If Broadway breaks, the water will rush over much of the city until Missouri avenue, running parallel one block north, is encountered.

Along the river front to the West a levee of sand bags from two to six feet high and two miles long keeps the river out.

Tuesday night the river suddenly began to rise. Tired men worked with frenzied energy to strengthen the sand bag levees. The city was made safe along the river front, but a new danger menaced. Word was received that the Illinois Central embankment skirting the river along the Southern boundary of the city, was threatening to give way. Couriers were sent on horseback and afoot to shout warnings to the inhabitants of the southern half of the city, and hundreds of laborers and citizens hastened to the embankment. Locomotives rushed carloads of sandbags to the place and work was hurriedly begun. Accompanied by this time to warnings of impending danger the inhabitants did not leave their homes. Higher and higher crept the water until a thin stream began to pour over the embankment, and suddenly it broke.

The break occurred at 11:40 o'clock. D. H. Sherwood, a laborer, was swept away and drowned. The water cut a section of the embankment out and a stream twenty-five feet wide rushed through. Another section of the embankment went out a few minutes later and then that portion standing between the two streams went down and the river poured through. It is believed that many men, especially negroes, were drowned.

The alarm spread like wildfire and whistles were blown, bells tolled, shots fired, and cries of warning were sounded, but even with all this pandemonium many of the inhabitants failed to leave their homes.

Within an hour the houses stood in water that reached to the roofs of the one-story cottages. Many fled to large brick buildings. Rescue boats found many people in second stories and on house-tops, but there is grave fear that when all the living have been transferred to land, the boats will bear bodies of dead from the flooded cottages and the desolated quarters.

In the turmoil it has been impossible to verify reported deaths, but from apparently reliable sources it is claimed that the following eleven persons were drowned:

Eleven Persons Drowned.

John Koolish and three children, drowned on North Side; an unidentified baby, E. H. Sherwood, Lawrence Day, two unidentified women, and two unidentified men.

It is currently reported that seven negroes caught looting houses at night were shot to death. They were all on a raft and were surprised by guards who shot them down and threw their bodies into the water. While this was not confirmed, it is known that there was heavy firing on the North Side, where these negroes are said to have been killed.

The deaths of John Koolish, a Polish carpenter, and his three children, two boys, aged five and seven years respectively, and a girl of twelve, were caused by trying to save three kegs of beer.

When boats were rowed alongside homes whose occupants were marooned in second stories and on roofs, many at first refused to leave. They feared river thieves and would stand guard. Women were most unwilling to be rescued, although some of them were wringing their hands and weeping in terror. Promises of militia patrol won the recalcitrant persons to salvation.

The St. Louis government gauge at 7 o'clock Wednesday night registered 37.95 feet, a rise of 15 of a foot during the past twenty-four hours. No attempt is made to explain this rise other than the wind is forcing water from lowlands into the channels of the Mississippi and Missouri rivers which swells the torrent passing St. Louis.

Denverside, a suburb of East St. Louis, was completely inundated, and Alta Sitka, farther to the East, was half flooded last night. If the river rises even to a small additional extent the water must swamp Alta Sitka. From the ordinary course of the Mississippi to the Illinois bluffs is a distance of five to eight miles and the flood laps at the foot of the bluffs.

To Relieve Flood Situation.

Topeka, Kan., June 11.—Governor Bailey at night said he would call an extra session of the Kansas legislature to relieve the flood situation.

CROP STATISTICS.

Spring Wheat Area Decreases in Minnesota and South Dakota.

Washington, June 11.—Preliminary returns to the statistician of the department of agriculture on the acreage of spring wheat sown indicate an area of about 17,257,000 acres, a decrease of 264,000 acres, or 2.1 per cent from the revised estimate of the acreage sown last year. An increase of 10 per cent in North Dakota is accompanied by a decrease in Minnesota and South Dakota, conservatively estimated at 6 per cent in the former state and 5 per cent in the latter.

The average condition of spring wheat on June 1, was 95.9, as compared with 95.4 at the corresponding date last year, 92 on June 1, 1901, and a ten year average of 92.9.

The average condition of winter wheat on June 1 was 82.2, as compared with 92.6 on May 1, 1903.

The total area reported in oats is about 27,732,000 acres, a reduction of 920,000 acres from the area sown last year.

The average condition of oats on June 1 was 85.5, against 90.6 on June 1, 1902.

The acreage as reported under barley exceeds that harvested last year by 330,000 acres.

There has been an improvement in the condition of spring pastures during the past month in Iowa, Missouri, Michigan, Kansas and Wisconsin.

Lawson Attaches Property.

Boston, June 11.—The property of the Bay State Gas company of Delaware has been attached by Thomas W. Lawson, in an action of contract for $1,850,000.

Washington, June 11.—Numerous offers have reached the Russian government from American sources, to aid the families of sufferers in the recent Kishineff incident. All such offers have been declined for the reason that Russia is entirely capable of extending relief and under the circumstances cannot accept outside aid.

The Russian position in the matter is stated to be as follows: "Russia has not been unappreciative of the generous offers, which have come to her from America since the affair at Kishineff, nor the humane motive which may have prompted these offers. In view of the fact that his majesty, the emperor, has the means at hand to relieve suffering wherever it appears in his empire, outside aid is unnecessary and all offers of such must be declined.

"Nor will it be possible for Russia to receive any representations regarding the Kishineff incident from a foreign power. The Russian government takes the same position as that long held by the American government, namely, that it refrains from interference in the internal affairs of another power and must insist on similar treatment for itself. Should any foreign power take steps to restrict immigration of Russian Jews on the ground that they are undesirable Russia will not protest."

Militia Escorting Chauncey Dewey and His Cowboys Arrive Safely.

Lincoln, Neb., June 11.—The State Journal last night received the following dispatch from A. E. Harvey, a Lincoln attorney who has gone to St. Francis, Kan., to defend Chauncey Dewey and the cowboys accused of murder. It is dated St. Francis and says:

"Have arrived here. There is no disturbance and no danger of a collection. The militia arrived this evening with the prisoners. The county attorney says he wants a postponement of the preliminary hearing until next week."

This is thought to dispose of wild rumors of bloody clashes between militia and settlers.

Lansing, Kan., June 11.—Jessie Morrison arrived at the state penitentiary Wednesday and began to serve a twenty-five year sentence for killing Mrs. Olin Castle. Miss Morrison was weak and nervous, but showed no signs of breaking down.

PRESIDENT CORNWALL MISSING.

His Bank is Short Almost Three Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Birmingham, Ala., June 11.—With President T. J. Cornwall in parts unknown and short nearly $280,000, the Bessemer savings bank, one of the strongest institutions in the district, will close its doors and ask for a receiver.

In one, addressed to the public, he says that he lost the money trying to make back $42,000 he had lost in a legitimate business transaction. He further exonerates all the officers of the bank and takes the whole blame on himself.

In a letter to his wife, he stated that he would not commit suicide, but would let her know if he died. In a third letter, addressed to Cashier Cockrell, he states that he had nothing left to do but "wander on the face of the earth or become a convict in the state mines."

The shortage will not affect the Birmingham banks, as they all have their paper out.

It is understood that a great part of the money was in deposits of the merchants and miners, together with employees of the rolling mills, furnaces and industrial plants of Bessemer. The city of Bessemer will lose $17,000.

The bank will probably not be able to meet a payment of more than a small percentage on its deposits. The bank was organized in 1901 with a capital of $100,000, and had deposits of about $250,000.

Lose Control of Their Boat and Three Jump Out and Drown.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 10.—Four persons were drowned in the Allegheny river a short distance below New Kensington in the evening. The dead are: Albert Lusk, thirty years old; Augustus Frank, nine years old; Joseph Krank, seven years old; George Adams, nine years old.

The three boys who were drowned got into a boat and started to float down the river. With them were four other youths about their own age. After floating half a mile down the river the current became swifter and the boys were unable to control the boat. The three boys who were drowned became frightened and jumped into the water and sank from sight in a moment. The four boys in the boat called for help and a camping party on an island hastened to the rescue. Lusk fell overboard.

For all Poisons of the

BLOOD Or the treatment costs nothing.

Contagious blood poison is a cruel and imperious master. It needs not the cry for mercy or the voice of prayer. You may have just recently contracted blood poison, or its lurking taint you may have had for years. It is safe to say that you are not cured. The old symptoms and troubles return every now and then. There is only one cure in the world today for blood poison in any stage, and that is MEDERINE. It searches out the impurities, cleanses and cures the system, strengthens and invigorates the whole constitution, clears and beautifies the complexion, and renders the skin soft and velvety.

One of Many Letters.

Geo. W. Watson, Oswego, N. Y., says: It is now three years since I took your MEDERINE course of treatment for blood poisoning, but I want to inform you of my gratitude for what it did for me. It saved me from worse than a living death. Only for your treatment I should have been on the other side of the river or in the Madhouse. I would to God that I had the power to spread to the entire world the curative powers of your Great All Blood Cure.

An Ulcer Cured.

Dr. Brown, Fargo, N. D., writes: I had an ulcer on my left leg, and learning of the remarkable cure MEDERINE was making, I used in all two courses of your treatment, and to my surprise the ulcer was healed. The doctors told me there was no hope for me. You had indeed given me great joy over being cured, after years of suffering and waste of money. Use this as well as serve the public.

Write MEDERINE REMEDY CO., Duluth, Minn., for their system of treatment. All letters answered. Illustrated booklet containing testimonials of cures mailed free.

Duluth, June 11.—The molders of the Clyde Iron company, who went on strike two months ago in sympathy with the machinists who had demanded shorter hours and more pay, have applied to the management for their old places, conceding they have lost the strike.

The management said that it was willing to take back such men as were needed, but places could not be found for all of them.

Since the strike has been on, the union men have maintained a picket line and endeavored in every peaceable way to dissuade others from taking their places, but their efforts have proved futile.

The machinists are still out and thus far have indicated no intention of calling the strike off.

APPLY FOR OLD PLACES.

Duluth Molders Concede Loss of Their Sympathetic Strike.

Duluth, June 11.—The molders of the Clyde Iron company, who went on strike two months ago in sympathy with the machinists who had demanded shorter hours and more pay, have applied to the management for their old places, conceding they have lost the strike.

The management said that it was willing to take back such men as were needed, but places could not be found for all of them.

Since the strike has been on, the union men have maintained a picket line and endeavored in every peaceable way to dissuade others from taking their places, but their efforts have proved futile.

The machinists are still out and thus far have indicated no intention of calling the strike off.

CONVENTION COMES TO CLOSE IN A GRAND BLAZE OF GLORY

Big Parade and Ball Following it Last Night
Was Greatly Enjoyed by all the Visiting Firemen

THE OFFICERS OF ASSOCIATION

A Resolution Was Passed Voting Brainerd one
of the Most Hospitable Cities
In The State
OFFICERS ELECTED.

President---G. G. Strong, Pipestone
First Vice-President--George Worthington,
Litchfield.
Second Vice-President--H. T. Emken, LeSueur.
Secretary--R. O. Strong, St. Paul.
Treasurer--Frank E. Joy, Stillwater.
Statistician--Edward F. Kelly, Faribault.

The business of the convention of the Minnesota State Firemen's association was taken up again this morning at 9:30 o'clock. The business of the greatest importance was the election of officers. In the regular order of business this would not have been taken up until this afternoon, but on motion unanimously carried, it was made a special order of business.

The Marine band discoursed several selections preceding the call of the convention and there were some rather interesting little speeches made by the different members. Secretary Strong, who seems to be the favorite of the entire body, was in a rather jocular frame of mind and things went along rather smoothly.

There were several motions made and some of the members wanted to reconsider the motion to make the election of officers a special order of business and take up other matters, but a motion to this effect was lost and the convention proceeded with the election.

There was but one candidate for the office of president, G. G. Strong, of Pipestone. He was placed in nomination and was unanimously elected, the secretary being instructed to cast the unanimous vote of the convention in his favor. Mr. Strong was called upon for a speech. He thanked the gentlemen most heartily for the honor conferred upon him, and on behalf of the city of Pipestone and the fire department of that city extended a cordial welcome to all to be present at the convention and tournament next year.

She next in line was the election of a first vice-president. The name of Geo. Worthington, of Litchfield, was presented and he appeared to have no opposition. He was unanimously elected.

The only real fight of the convention, and in reality it was no fight at all, was on the election of a second vice-president. This election determined the place of meeting in 1906. There were two cities which wanted this convention and they had their candidates in the field. LeSueur presented the name of H. T. Emken and Wells presented Edward Hayes. The motion that the convention proceed to vote on these candidates carried and it took short order to determine which was the choice of the convention. Wells got but 19 votes while LaSueur received something like 200. Emken was called upon for a speech and thanked the members of the convention for the honor stating that in 1906 they would do their best to prove themselves worthy.

R. O. Strong, of St. Paul, was selected secretary by acclamation. He is one of the very popular members of the association and has been its secretary since the association was organized. F. E. Joy, of Stillwater, who has had charge of the associations' strong box for sixteen years was also re-elected. Edward F. Kelly, of Fairbault, was re-elected statistician.

This afternoon the convention convened again and the time was taken up in reading and allowing bills.

A resolution was unanimously passed extending a vote of thanks to the firemen of the city and to Brainerd generally for the kindness and courtesy extended to the visiting delegates.

Many of the delegates left for their homes in various parts of the state this afternoon, but a majority will remain over to take in the sports this afternoon at Athletic park and the performance at the Brainerd opera house tonight.

THE BIG PARADE.

Last night shortly after 7 o'clock the parade of all the fire companies of the

state occurred and it was a big turnout. N. M. Paine was grand marshal and he had as aides Peter Wolvert, Roy Guthrie and C. A. Wilkins. The parade was headed by the Brainerd Marine band dressed in white duck pants with the regulation band uniform coat. The start was made from the central hose house and the line of march was as follows: South to Laurel street, thence east to Eighth street, south to Norwood, west to Sixth street, thence north to Kingwood, thence east to Eighth street, south to Front street and back west again to the central hosehouse.

It is estimated that there were fully four hundred men in line and, while there was no pretense at gaudy dress, yet the men in line presented a very good appearance. They were certainly a husky looking lot of men and seemed to enjoy the march very much. Brainerd firemen in their new suits turned out en masse and presented a very good appearance.

Immediately after the parade the Marine band stationed in the band stand discoursed music for some time and following this the big ball in Gardner hall was opened and all the firemen seemed to take this in with a vengeance.

THE GRAND BALL.

Seldom ever has there been a more elaborate turnout at Gardner's hall than there was last night when the members of the Brainerd fire department tendered to the visiting firemen a ball. There were fully three hundred people in the hall at times and the dancing was kept up until the wee small hours. The music was fine, the crowd was jovial and there was nothing to be desired. The firemen all attest to its being one of the biggest events of the many tournaments held in the past few years.

THE RACES LAST NIGHT.

Last night the hose and ladder climbing contest was held and considerable interest was manifested in the event. In the ladder climbing contest A. D. Brown, of Pipestone, won the $5 prize, making the climb in 7 seconds. Jack Emerson, of Elmore, was second making the climb in 7 and one-fifth seconds. E. H. Falkenstein and Jack Oswald, of Mankato, tied for third place, their time being 8 seconds.

There was a hose race on Laurel street also, made up of members of the association. The following team captained by G. A. Lewis made the best time and was awarded the $10 prize: E. H. Falkenstein, F. M. Bennett, George Eichstad and J. D. Quane, Mankato; Otto Peterson, W. J. Laisee, Little Falls; M. J. Davis, St. Charles; Otto Schweer, Mapleton; J. W. Anderson Madelia; Joseph Kiffe, Pipestone. Their time was 34 seconds.

The other team made the run in 38 seconds. They were captained by Chas. Main and the team was composed of the following: S. C. Moore, Jack Emerson, J. T. Grebe, Elmore; Alfred Nagel, New Ulm; Chas. Proehl and Chas. Spalding, Mapleton; J. A. Eggars, Plainview; Ira White, Brainerd; Steve McKanna, F. Volkert Aitkin.

Brainerd Delegation.

The delegates from Brainerd who attended the convention at Little Falls of the Federation of Labor are as follows: Machinists' Helpers No. 10161--Henry Dorr, Guy Bye, E. C. Bannett, Alfred Simpson.
Carpenters' Union--R. D. Ranson.
Trades and Labor Assembly--Robert Caughie.
Railway Carmen No. 133--Fred Allison, R. C. Kutz.
Blacksmiths' Union--John Lund, E. Weekshom.

TO BE MUSTERED IN

Col. Casler will Be Here Tomorrow to Muster in Camp Logan, Sons of Veterans--A Good Camp.

Tomorrow afternoon Col. Casler, of St. Paul, will be in the city and will muster in Camp Logan, Sons of Veterans. This is the name of the old camp that was in existence here some years ago. It has been revived through the efforts of some of the members of the G. A. R. and it will be one of the strongest organizations in the city.

BASE BALL NUBS

The ball game on Sunday afternoon will be a hummer and there should be one of the largest turnouts in years at a game. The Elks, and it must be understood that it will not be the same team as played last Sunday, will meet the Aitkin team. The team will be lined up differently and Dr. Watkins, the best in the state as a twirler will be in the box. Krelwitz who is a peacherine also will be in the game. The battle will commence at 3:30 o'clock and there will doubtless be a large attendance.

The members of the Elks team are requested by Capt. Howe to get out this evening for practice. This means every man on the team.

In the game yesterday afternoon at Winnipeg between the team of that city and Grand Forks, Grand Forks was shut out, and Bemis pitched for Winnipeg. The papers state that Bemis showed up strong and completely outclassed Harris who pitched for Grand Forks.

Rubber tires will be put on baby buggies by F. H. Gruenhagen. 78-11

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

"FEDORA FRIDAY NIGHT."

The Ashland Press, June 1st, says: "Ashland theatre-goers were never treated to a better production than was presented last evening at the Grand by Melbourne McDowell and Miss Florence Stone in 'Fedora.'"

"A good house greeted these two famous artists and no one who witnessed the performance went away disappointed. Mr. McDowell, as Prince Dimitri Ivanovich Nekladoff, played the part so naturally that one could almost imagine himself in far off Russia where the plot of the play was laid. He was greeted to curtain call after curtain call and the audience were sorry when the curtain fell at the end of the last act.

"Miss Florence Stone, leading lady, played the part of Katusha Maslova and her rendition of the character was superb. Her climaxes brought forth hearty applause from the audience, and critics who have seen Blanche Walsh in the part are unanimous in their opinion that Miss Stone played the part better. Her climax at the end of the third act was never equalled before in an Ashland theatre and when she appeared on a curtain call she was so overcome by her emotions in playing the part, that she had to be supported by Mr. McDowell to keep from falling."

"This splendid attraction comes to the Brainerd theatre Friday night and should attract a capacity house as it is one of the best things of the season."

"CAPRICE" TONIGHT.

"Caprice," the beautiful comedy, will be presented for the second time this evening at the Brainerd opera house by an excellent cast of local artists. This piece has considerable merit to it and the company which presents it gives it a very proper and elaborate setting. It will be well worth the price of admission and will make an evening well spent. The firemen will attend tonight in a body.

The Twin city and southern delegates came on a special coach on the Northern Pacific. There are about sixty delegates among whom are the following best known to Minnesota Good Templars: Colonel B. F. Parkes, supreme secretary of the world; Agnes E. Safeley, grand secretary for Minnesota; Hon. Judge N. F. Moen and wife, Ada; Jessie Barnes and wife, Rev. C. W. B. Ellis, Hawley; Hon. E. J. Stain and A. S. McCarthy, Duluth; Miss Hattie James, Mrs. Ross, Minneapolis; Miss Freeman, White Bear, and many others.

The White Banner Lodge No. 123, met in Columbian hall last evening and entertained the grand lodge. The work was exemplified and a social time was much enjoyed. There were a large number present.

The Good Templars held the fortieth International Supreme Lodge in Stockholm, Sweden, and it was then shown that after years of depression the work was steadily prospering in America as it had continued to progress in all other parts of the world. The R. M. G. secretary, Col. B. F. Parker, present at this session, reported 300,068 adult members, in 8166 lodges, and 181,253 juniors in 2613 lodges, or a total of 541,321 members in 10,779 lodges. For the next International convention there were 264 candidates including Seattle, Washington; Portland, Maine; Washington, D. C. U. S. A., and it was Belfast, Ireland, which received the nomination for August 1st, 1905.

The Minnesota grand lodge has the smallest membership for forty years, yet the officers here are not discouraged; they think temperance sentiment was never safer nor stronger and they hope by wise election of officers and hard energetic work to give the membership a big lift this coming year.

The grand lodge opened with N. T. Moen, G. C. Templar in the chair, and the following officers, Grand Counselor, C. W. B. Ellis; Grand Vice Templar, Emma M. James; Grand Superintendent Juvenile Temples, Lizzie P. Cole and Grand Secretary Agnes E. Safeley, and Grand Treasurer A. G. McCawly, of Duluth, acting Grand Treasurer 7th district. Grand Lodge degrees were conferred on numerous candidates.

There will be a special session of the Supreme International Lodge to be convened at 5 o'clock by Colonel Parker, Right Worthy Grand Secretary of the World's Good Templars.

This evening there will be a public meeting in the First Baptist church at 8 o'clock.

THE OFFICERS OF ASSOCIATION

A Resolution Was Passed Voting Brainerd one
of the Most Hospitable Cities
In The State

OFFICERS ELECTED.

President--G. G. Strong, Pipestone
First Vice-President--George Worthington,
Litchfield.
Second Vice-President--H. T. Emken, LeSueur.
Secretary--R. O. Strong, St. Paul.
Treasurer--Frank E. Joy, Stillwater.
Statistician--Edward F. Kelly, Faribault.

The business of the convention of the Minnesota State Firemen's association was taken up again this morning at 9:30 o'clock. The business of the greatest importance was the election of officers. In the regular order of business this would not have been taken up until this afternoon, but on motion unanimously carried, it was made a special order of business.

The Marine band discoursed several selections preceding the call of the convention and there were some rather interesting little speeches made by the different members. Secretary Strong, who seems to be the favorite of the entire body, was in a rather jocular frame of mind and things went along rather smoothly.

There were several motions made and some of the members wanted to reconsider the motion to make the election of officers a special order of business and take up other matters, but a motion to this effect was lost and the convention proceeded with the election.

There was but one candidate for the office of president, G. G. Strong, of Pipestone. He was placed in nomination and was unanimously elected, the secretary being instructed to cast the unanimous vote of the convention in his favor. Mr. Strong was called upon for a speech. He thanked the gentlemen most heartily for the honor conferred upon him, and on behalf of the city of Pipestone and the fire department of that city extended a cordial welcome to all to be present at the convention and tournament next year.

She next in line was the election of a first vice-president. The name of Geo. Worthington, of Litchfield, was presented and he appeared to have no opposition. He was unanimously elected.

The only real fight of the convention, and in reality it was no fight at all, was on the election of a second vice-president. This election determined the place of meeting in 1906. There were two cities which wanted this convention and they had their candidates in the field. LeSueur presented the name of H. T. Emken and Wells presented Edward Hayes. The motion that the convention proceed to vote on these candidates carried and it took short order to determine which was the choice of the convention. Wells got but 19 votes while LaSueur received something like 200. Emken was called upon for a speech and thanked the members of the convention for the honor stating that in 1906 they would do their best to prove themselves worthy.

R. O. Strong, of St. Paul, was selected secretary by acclamation. He is one of the very popular members of the association and has been its secretary since the association was organized. F. E. Joy, of Stillwater, who has had charge of the associations' strong box for sixteen years was also re-elected. Edward F. Kelly, of Fairbault, was re-elected statistician.

This afternoon the convention convened again and the time was taken up in reading and allowing bills.

A resolution was unanimously passed extending a vote of thanks to the firemen of the city and to Brainerd generally for the kindness and courtesy extended to the visiting delegates.

Many of the delegates left for their homes in various parts of the state this afternoon, but a majority will remain over to take in the sports this afternoon at Athletic park and the performance at the Brainerd opera house tonight.

THE BIG PARADE.

state occurred and it was a big turnout. N. M. Paine was grand marshal and he had as aides Peter Wolvert, Roy Guthrie and C. A. Wilkins. The parade was headed by the Brainerd Marine band dressed in white duck pants with the regulation band uniform coat. The start was made from the central hose house and the line of march was as follows: South to Laurel street, thence east to Eighth street, south to Norwood, west to Sixth street, thence north to Kingwood, thence east to Eighth street, south to Front street and back west again to the central hosehouse.

It is estimated that there were fully four hundred men in line and, while there was no pretense at gaudy dress, yet the men in line presented a very good appearance. They were certainly a husky looking lot of men and seemed to enjoy the march very much. Brainerd firemen in their new suits turned out en masse and presented a very good appearance.

Immediately after the parade the Marine band stationed in the band stand discoursed music for some time and following this the big ball in Gardner hall was opened and all the firemen seemed to take this in with a vengeance.

THE GRAND BALL.

Seldom ever has there been a more elaborate turnout at Gardner's hall than there was last night when the members of the Brainerd fire department tendered to the visiting firemen a ball. There were fully three hundred people in the hall at times and the dancing was kept up until the wee small hours. The music was fine, the crowd was jovial and there was nothing to be desired. The firemen all attest to its being one of the biggest events of the many tournaments held in the past few years.

THE RACES LAST NIGHT.

Last night the hose and ladder climbing contest was held and considerable interest was manifested in the event. In the ladder climbing contest A. D. Brown, of Pipestone, won the $5 prize, making the climb in 7 seconds. Jack Emerson, of Elmore, was second making the climb in 7 and one-fifth seconds. E. H. Falkenstein and Jack Oswald, of Mankato, tied for third place, their time being 8 seconds.

There was a hose race on Laurel street also, made up of members of the association. The following team captained by G. A. Lewis made the best time and was awarded the $10 prize: E. H. Falkenstein, F. M. Bennett, George Eichstad and J. D. Quane, Mankato; Otto Peterson, W. J. Laisee, Little Falls; M. J. Davis, St. Charles; Otto Schweer, Mapleton; J. W. Anderson, Madelia; Joseph Kiffe, Pipestone. Their time was 34 seconds.

The other team made the run in 38 seconds. They were captained by Chas. Main and the team was composed of the following: S. C. Moore, Jack Emerson, J. T. Grebe, Elmore; Alfred Nagel, New Ulm; Chas. Proehl and Chas. Spalding, Mapleton; J. A. Eggars, Plainview; Ira White, Brainerd; Steve McKanna, F. Volkert Aitkin.

Brainerd Delegation.

The delegates from Brainerd who attended the convention at Little Falls of the Federation of Labor are as follows: Machinists' Helpers No. 10161—Henry Dorr, Guy Bye, E. C. Bannett, Alfred Simpson.

Carpenters' Union—R. D. Ranson. Trades and Labor Assembly—Robert Caughie.

Railway Carmen No. 133—Fred Allison, R. C. Kutz.

Blacksmiths' Union—John Lund, E. Weckshom.

TO BE MUSTERED IN

Col. Casler will Be Here Tomorrow to Muster in Camp Logan, Sons of Veterans--A Good Camp.

Tomorrow afternoon Col. Casler, of St. Paul, will be in the city and will muster in Camp Logan, Sons of Veterans. This is the name of the old camp that was in existence here some years ago. It has been revived through the efforts of some of the members of the G. A. R. and it will be one of the strongest organizations in the city.

BASE BALL NUBS

The ball game on Sunday afternoon will be a hummer and there should be one of the largest turnouts in years at a game. The Elks, and it must be understood that it will not be the same team as played last Sunday, will meet the Aitkin team. The team will be lined up differently and Dr. Watkins, the best in the state as a twirler will be in the box. Krelwitz who is a peacherine also will be in the game. The battle will commence at 3:30 o'clock and there will doubtless be a large attendance.

In the game yesterday afternoon at Winnipeg between the team of that city and Grand Forks, Grand Forks was shut out, and Bemis pitched for Winnipeg. The papers state that Bemis showed up strong and completely outclassed Harris who pitched for Grand Forks.

"FEDORA FRIDAY NIGHT."

The Ashland Press, June 1st, says: "Ashland theatre-goers were never treated to a better production than was presented last evening at the Grand by Melbourne McDowell and Miss Florence Stone in 'Fedora'."

"A good house greeted these two famous artists and no one who witnessed the performance went away disappointed. Mr. McDowell, as Prince Dimitri Ivanovich Nekudoff, played the part so naturally that one could almost imagine himself in far off Russia where the plot of the play was laid. He was greeted to curtain call after curtain call and the audience were sorry when the curtain fell at the end of the last act."

"Miss Florence Stone, leading lady, played the part of Katusha Maslova and her rendition of the character was superb. Her climaxes brought forth hearty applause from the audience, and critics who have seen Blanche Walsh in the part are unanimous in their opinion that Miss Stone played the part better. Her climax at the end of the third act was never equalled before in an Ashland theatre and when she appeared on a curtain call she was so overcome by her emotions in playing the part, that she had to be supported by Mr. McDowell to keep from falling."

This splendid attraction comes to the Brainerd theatre Friday night and should attract a capacity house as it is one of the best things of the season.

"CAPRICE" TONIGHT.

"Caprice," the beautiful comedy, will be presented for the second time this evening at the Brainerd opera house by an excellent cast of local artists. This piece has considerable merit to it and the company which presents it gives it a very proper and elaborate setting. It will be well worth the price of admission and will make an evening well spent. The firemen will attend tonight in a body.

GRAND LODGE OF GOOD TEMPLARS

In Session in this City Today—Meeting is Held in Columbian Hall.

SOME NOTABLE MEN HERE.

Special Session of the Supreme International Lodge Convened Today.

The grand lodge of the state of Minnesota, I. O. G. T., met in the Columbian hall this morning at 10 o'clock for its forty-sixth annual session. The Twin city and southern delegates came on a special coach on the Northern Pacific. There are about sixty delegates among whom are the following best known to Minnesota Good Templars: Colonel B. F. Parkes, supreme secretary of the world; Agnes E. Safeley, grand secretary for Minnesota; Hon. Judge N. F. Moen and wife, Ada; Jessie Barnes and wife, Rev. C. W. B. Ellis, Hawley; Hon. E. J. Toney, Rev. J. T. B. Smith, Cass Lake; Mrs. Orin J. Ogg, secretary of the 5th district; Irwin Thompson, Windom; Lizzie P. Cale, chief of the 5th district; Dr. Allen; Minneapolis; Mrs. S. Gardner, Mrs. Calmooden and Rose E. Nelson, Duluth; George H. Haggard, park commissioner, who is one of the Blue Berry war veterans and this is his first visit to Brainerd since the summer of 1872 when the Indians were hung to the trees in the streets; R. C. Stain and A. S. McCarthy, Duluth; Miss Hattie James, Mrs. Ross, Minneapolis; Miss Freeman, White Bear, and many others.

The White Banner Lodge No. 123, met in Columbian hall last evening and entertained the grand lodge. The work was exemplified and a social time was much enjoyed. There were a large number present.

The Good Templars held the fortieth International Supreme Lodge in Stockholm, Sweden, and it was then shown that after years of depression the work was steadily prospering in America as it had continued to progress in all other parts of the world. The R. M. G. secretary, Col. B. F. Parker, present at this session, reported 390,068 adult members, in 8166 lodges, and 181,253 juniors in 2613 lodges, or a total of 541,321 members in 10,779 lodges. For the next international convention there were 264 candidates including Seattle, Washington; Portland, Maine; Washington, D. C. U. S. A., and it was Belfast, Ireland, which received the nomination for August 1st, 1906.

The Minnesota grand lodge has the smallest membership for forty years, yet the officers here are not discouraged; they think temperance sentiment was never safer nor stronger and they hope by wise election of officers and hard energetic work to give the membership a big lift this coming year.

The grand lodge opened with N. T. Moen, G. C. Templar in the chair, and the following officers, Grand Counselor, C. W. B. Ellis; Grand Vice Templar, Emma M. James; Grand Superintendent Juvenile Temples, Lizzie P. Cole and Grand Secretary Agnes E. Safeley, and Grand Treasurer A. G. McCawley, of Duluth, acting Grand Treasurer 7th district. Grand Lodge degrees were conferred on numerous candidates.

There will be a special session of the Supreme International Lodge to be convened at 5 o'clock by Colonel Parker, Right Worthy Grand Secretary of the World's Good Templars.

This evening there will be a public meeting in the First Baptist church at 8 o'clock.

SITUATION VERY SERIOUS.

Rangers and Deputies Unable to Control Strikers at Morenci.
Phoenix, Ariz., June 11.—A message received by Acting Governor Stoddard early in the day from Captain Rynning says the situation is very serious and there is great excitement. Rynning reports that he has fifteen rangers and fifty deputies, but can do nothing with a large force of strikers and says that at least two companies of regulars are necessary to control the strikers. The militia should now be at Morenci. Rumors have reached here of a demonstration in the morning in which shots were fired, but no one hurt. News out of Morenci is meagre. Regular troops have also been sent to Morenci.

MURDER OF MARCUM

VICTIM'S SISTER SAYS CUSTIS JETT TOLD HER HE DID THE SHOOTING.

Jackson, Ky., June 11.—The third day of the trial of Curtis Jett and Thomas White for the murder of Attorney J. B. Marcum was distinguished by the evidence of B. L. Ewen, the first and leading witness of the commonwealth. Jett and White are trying jointly, the indictment charging them with deliberation in a conspiracy to murder. It is charged that White entered the courthouse while Marcum and Ewen were standing together and as he passed them gave the signal to fire. Ewen testified to seeing White just before and after Marcum was shot, and to seeing Jett just after his victim was carried out of the courthouse. Ewen's testimony corroborated the statements he had previously made regarding both prisoners and he withstood a rigid cross examination. In the morning when the witnesses were ordered out of the courtroom, Attorneys for the defendants asked that County Judge Hargis be allowed to remain.

On the objection of attorneys for the commonwealth being sustained, Judge Hargis retired with the other witnesses. When court reconvened in the afternoon the daughter of County Judge Hargis, the leader of the dominant feudists, occupied a seat beside the prisoners. At the afternoon sitting of the court, attorneys for the defendants moved to disperse with the presence of troops in the courtroom and were overruled.

Makes Startling Statement.
At night Mrs. Mary Johnson, sister of the murdered attorney, made a statement which is even more startling than Ewen's admission. In his statement in the morning, Commonwealth's Attorney Byrd said that it would be proved that Jett admitted to Mrs. Johnson that he killed Marcum. In the evidence in the afternoon it was stated that Jett and White were seen talking to Mrs. Johnson at the bridge. Mrs. Johnson confirms what Byrd said would be her testimony, adding that she feared to tell this earlier, believing she would be assassinated.

"As I was returning home shortly after the killing," she said, "I was overtaken by Jett. He spoke to me, and I said: 'Jett, did you kill my brother?' He replied 'I did, but Hargis' money made me do it.' He said he was going to leave the country. Then Tom White came up and I asked him if he had anything to do with the murder and he said he was there, but did not fire the shot."

Byrd says other witnesses will testify that Jett admitted that he killed Marcum.

MUST SERVE HIS TIME.

Sentence of James Wilcox for Murder of Nellie Cropsey Affirmed.

Raleigh, N. C., June 11.—James Wilcox, the murderer of Nellie Cropsey of Elizabeth City, will have to serve his sentence of thirty years in the state prison here. On his first trial he was sentenced to be hanged, but the supreme court gave him a new trial because the spectators at the trial made a demonstration when Wilcox's lawyer arose to speak. On the second trial, in a different court, he was convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to serve thirty years in the penitentiary. This judgment, the supreme court affirmed in a long opinion.

SAVES CHAMBERLAIN

WITH A DEXTEROUS SPEECH

DIFFERENCES SMOOTHED OVER WITHOUT COMMITTING THE GOVERNMENT.

London, June 11.—By a dexterous and extraordinary speech, Premier Balfour at night temporarily smoothed over the differences in the cabinet, relieved Colonial Secretary Chamberlain of any necessity of resigning and for the moment averted a crisis which threatened the Unionist party. This, Mr. Balfour accomplished without committing the government either to protection or free trade, though the effect of his speech will generally be taken to mean that the tariff issue is to be shelved for the present.

Henry Chaplin's amendment, which gave rise to the most interesting debate of the present parliament, was defeated by the overwhelming majority of 356 votes, composed of Unionists, Liberals and Irish members. The minority, who supported Mr. Chaplin's amendment, were almost all followers of the government, while many others of the Conservative party abstained from voting.

Replies to Taunts and Appeals.
It was 10:30 o'clock at night when Premier Balfour sprang to his feet to reply to the taunts of the opposition and appeals from his own party.

For two days the house of commons has rung with echoes of dissensions within the cabinet and dissatisfaction without.

The premier was loudly cheered. He had scarcely begun to deal with Mr. Chaplin's amendment before he was interrupted with a hurricane of applause and ironical cheers at the entry of Mr. Chamberlain, who had been absent hitherto throughout the evening. The colonial secretary dropped into his accustomed place. The house was now packed with peers, members of the house and spectators as it has not been since the days of home rule and they waited and listened in intense expectation.

In a whimsical vein Mr. Balfour explained that the only reason that the corn tax was put on was because the government wanted money and the only reason it was taken off was because the government wanted money no longer.

Balfour Becomes Vehement.

Reverting to the charges of vacillation made against him, the premier took a tone of unusual vehemence. He declared that he himself, though a believer in free trade, which statement met with loud applause, did not regard it as a fetish, and he had absolutely an open mind regarding the necessity for an alteration in a system which was founded to suit conditions of fifty years ago. He refused not only to make a statement of any finality upon such an important question, but he also refused to compel his colleagues to confirm to a standard of opinion upon which he, himself, had an open mind. He admitted that differences of opinion existed within the cabinet, but these were not serious enough to cause the resignation of any member.

Mr. Balfour made an impassioned plea, enforced by the precedents of friction in Mr. Gladstone's ministries, for allowing the premier upon a question so difficult and so superior to all party issues. The speaker did not believe the country would ever return to the old protective system, and no tax on food was ever imposed without the full assent of the working classes.

They were confronted, however, continued the premier, by three great phenomena: Huge tariff walls against the United Kingdom; the growth of the trusts and the desire of the colonies for closer fiscal union with the mother country. These factors could not be ignored. He maintained that the method of starting a public discussion was the only way to deal with these phenomena, though he did not commit himself to Mr. Chamberlain's more advanced programme. It would be folly and rashness, he said, to interfere with the great system which had been in operation for so many years without the most careful examination and without due regard for history and

This non-committal speech, and appeal with all the eloquence and magnetism which Mr. Balfour wields so successfully, for an open mind not only in the cabinet, but in the Unionists' party, brought a constant salvo of cheers. Throughout, Mr. Chamberlain sat beside the leader of the house, beaming with satisfaction.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Liberal leader, briefly replied, appealing for an opportunity for the house to more fully discuss the issue raised.

The members of the house trooped into the lobby to vote against G. Henry Chaplin's amendment, the general comment being "Balfour has saved Chamberlain."

The colonial secretary, himself jubilant, said: "Our friend the enemy is nonplussed this time."
With the exception of some irreconcilable malcontents the Unionist party is greatly relieved by the outcome of the debate, all the members expressing gladness that the crisis was passed, at the same time believing that the same cabinet could not long continue to embrace such opposition on the fiscal policy of Great Britain as Colonial Secretary Chamberlain and Chancellor of the Exchequer Ritchie

SITUATION VERY SERIOUS.

Rangers and Deputies Unable to Control
 Strikers at Morenci.
 Phoenix, Ariz., June 11.—A message
 received by Acting Governor Stoddard
 early in the day from Captain Rynning
 of the Ranger force at Morenci, says
 the situation is very serious and there is great excitement. Rynning reports that he has fifteen rangers and fifty deputies, but can do nothing with a large force of strikers and says that at least two companies of regulars are necessary to control the strikers. The militia should now be at Morenci. Rumors have reached here of a demonstration
 in the morning in which
 shots were fired, but no one hurt.
 News out of Morenci is meagre. Regular troops have also been sent to Morenci.

MURDER OF MARCUM

VICTIM'S SISTER SAYS CUSTIS
 JETT TOLD HER HE DID THE SHOOTING.

Jackson, Ky., June 11.—The third day of the trial of Curtis Jett and Thomas White for the murder of Attorney J. B. Marcum was distinguished by the evidence of B. L. Ewen, the first and leading witness of the commonwealth. Jett and White are trying jointly, the indictment charging
 them with deliberation in a conspiracy to murder. It is charged that White entered the courthouse while Marcum
 and Ewen were standing together and as he passed them gave the signal to fire. Ewen testified to seeing White first before and after Marcum was shot, and to seeing Jett just after his victim was carried out of the courthouse. Ewen's testimony corroborated
 the statements he had previously made regarding both prisoners and he withstood a rigid cross examination.
 In the morning when the witnesses
 were ordered out of the courtroom, Attorneys for the defendants asked that County Judge Hargis be allowed to remain.

On the objection of attorneys for
 the commonwealth being sustained,
 Judge Hargis retired with the other witnesses. When court reconvened in the afternoon the daughter of County Judge Hargis, the leader of the dominant feudists, occupied a seat beside the prisoners. At the afternoon sitting of the court, attorneys for the defendants moved to dispense with the presence of troops in the courtroom
 and were overruled.

Makes Startling Statement.

At night Mrs. Mary Johnson, sister of the murdered attorney, made a statement which is even more startling than Ewen's admission. In his statement in the morning, Commonwealth's Attorney Byrd said that it would be proved that Jett admitted to
 Mrs. Johnson that he killed Marcum.
 In the evidence in the afternoon it was stated that Jett and White were seen talking to Mrs. Johnson at the bridge.
 Mrs. Johnson confirms what Byrd said would be her testimony, adding that she feared to tell this earlier, believing she would be assassinated.

"As I was returning home shortly after the killing," she said, "I was overtaken by Jett. He spoke to me, and I said: 'Jett, did you kill my brother?' He replied 'I did, but Hargis' money made me do it.' He said he was going to leave the country.
 Then Tom White came up and I asked him if he had anything to do with the murder and he said he was there, but did not fire the shot."
 Byrd says other witnesses will testify that Jett admitted that he killed Marcum.

MUST SERVE HIS TIME.

Sentence of James Wilcox for Murder
 of Nellie Cropsey Affirmed.

Raleigh, N. C., June 11.—James Wilcox, the murderer of Nellie Cropsey of Elizabeth City, will have to serve his sentence of thirty years in the state prison here. On his first trial he was sentenced to be hanged,
 but the supreme court gave him a new trial because the spectators at the trial made a demonstration when Wilcox's lawyer arose to speak. On the second trial, in a different county,
 he was convicted of murder in the second degree and sentenced to serve thirty years in the penitentiary. This judgment, the supreme court affirmed
 in a long opinion.

PREMIER BALFOUR COMES TO THE RESCUE OF HIS COLO-

WITH A DEXTEROUS SPEECH

DIFFERENCES SMOOTHED OVER WITHOUT COMMITTING THE GOVERNMENT.

London, June 11.—By a dexterous
 and extraordinary speech, Premier Balfour at night temporarily smoothed
 over the differences in the cabinet, relieved Colonial Secretary Chamberlain of any necessity of resigning and for the moment averted a crisis which threatened the Unionist party. This, Mr. Balfour accomplished without committing the government either to protection or free trade, though the effect of his speech will generally be taken to mean that the tariff issue is to be shelved for the present.

Henry Chaplin's amendment, which gave rise to the most interesting debate of the present parliament, was defeated by the overwhelming majority of 396 votes, composed of Unionists, Liberals and Irish members. The minority, who supported
 Mr. Chaplin's amendment, were almost all followers of the government,
 while many others of the Conservative party abstained from voting.

Replies to Taunts and Appeals.

It was 10:30 o'clock at night when Premier Balfour sprang to his feet to reply to the taunts of the opposition
 and appeals from his own party.

For two days the house of commons
 has rung with echoes of dissensions
 within the cabinet and dissatisfaction
 without.

The premier was loudly cheered. He had scarcely begun to deal with Mr.
 Chaplin's amendment before he was interrupted with a hurricane of applause and ironical cheers at the entry of Mr. Chamberlain, who had been absent hitherto throughout the evening. The colonial secretary dropped into his accustomed place. The house was now packed with peers, members
 of the house and spectators as it has not been since the days of home rule
 and they waited and listened in intense expectation.

In a whimsical vein Mr. Balfour explained that the only reason that the corn tax was put on was because the government wanted money and the only reason it was taken off was because the government wanted money
 no longer.

Balfour Becomes Vehement.

Reverting to the charges of vacillation made against him, the premier took a tone of unusual vehemence. He declared that he himself, though a believer in free trade, which statement
 met with loud applause, did not regard it as a fetish, and he had absolutely an open mind regarding the necessity for an alteration in a system which was founded to suit conditions of fifty years ago. He refused not only to make a statement of any finality upon such an important question, but he also refused to compel
 his colleagues to confirm to a standard of opinion upon which he himself had an open mind. He admitted that differences of opinion existed within
 the cabinet, but these were not serious enough to cause the resignation of any member.

Mr. Balfour made an impassioned plea, enforced by the precedents of friction in Mr. Gladstone's ministries, for allowing the premier

upon a question so difficult and so superior to all party issues. The speaker
 did not believe the country would ever
 return to the old protective system,
 and no tax on food was ever imposed
 without the full assent of the working classes.

They were confronted, however,
 continued the premier, by three great phenomena: Huge tariff walls against the United Kingdom; the growth of the trusts and the desire of the colonies
 for closer fiscal union with the mother country. These factors could not be ignored. He maintained that the method of starting a public discussion was the only way to deal with these phenomena, though he did not commit himself to Mr. Chamberlain's more advanced programme. It would be folly and rashness, he said, to interfere with the great system which had been in operation for so many years without the most careful examination and without due regard for history and

The Traditions of the Past,
 while at the same time they could not ignore those new problems which the ever-changing face of industrial life
 presented for decision and the action
 of statesmen.

This non-committal speech, and appeal with all the eloquence and magnetism which Mr. Balfour wields so successfully, for an open mind not only in the cabinet, but in the Unionists' party, brought a constant salvo
 of cheers. Throughout, Mr. Chamberlain sat beside the leader of the house, beaming with satisfaction.

Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, the Liberal leader, briefly replied, appealing for an opportunity for the house
 to more fully discuss the issue raised.
 The members of the house trooped
 into the lobby to vote against G.
 Henry Chaplin's amendment, the general comment being "Balfour has saved Chamberlain."

The colonial secretary, himself
 jubilant, said: "Our friend the enemy is nonplussed this time."

With the exception of some irreconcilable malcontents the Unionist party is greatly relieved by the outcome of the debate, all the members expressing gladness that the crisis was passed, at the same time believing that the same cabinet could not long
 continue to embrace such opposition
 on the fiscal policy of Great Britain
 as Colonial Secretary Chamberlain and Chancellor of the Exchequer Ritchie
